FG combines decades of industry experience with a highly skilled team of designers, craftspeople and project specialists dedicated to creating comfortable, durable and inspiring seating solutions for libraries and learning environments.

From initial consultation and design development through to manufacturing, installation and final delivery, we take great pride in the service and quality we provide. Every seating project is carefully considered to ensure spaces are welcoming, functional and designed to support the way people read, study and collaborate.

We design and manufacture a wide range of seating for public libraries, school libraries, universities and community hubs. From flexible soft seating and reading booths to integrated seating within shelving and bespoke study areas, our solutions help create environments that encourage reading, relaxation and social learning.

Working closely with librarians, councils, schools, architects and contractors, our team develops seating solutions tailored to each space - balancing comfort, durability and practical design for busy public environments.

As part of FG, we are committed to reducing the environmental impact of all products produced and distributed from our UK manufacturing facilities in Hertfordshire and Northamptonshire. Sustainability is embedded throughout our design and manufacturing processes as we work towards contributing to a more sustainable future for libraries and communities.

FG holds ISO 14001 environmental accreditation and is a proud member of the Furniture Industry Sustainability Programme (FISP), reflecting our commitment to responsible manufacturing, long-lasting products and environmental best practice.
